

SECRECY ORDER RECOMMENDATION BY DEFENSE AGENCY

Clear
File 46-04
Date Created

Application Serial No.: 10/724,194

Defense Agency: ARMY

Filing Date:

Date Referred: 3-9-04

I hereby acknowledge as indicated by my signature on this form that I have inspected this application in administration of 35 USC 181 on behalf of the Agency/Command specified below. I promise not to divulge any information from this application for any purpose other than administration of 35 USC 181.

Recommendation

(e.g. 'Secrecy Not Recommended (SNR)')

Reviewer(s) Signature/Date/Command

W. P. P. P. SNR
APR 12 2004 4-12-04
U.S. Army

Instructions to Reviewers:

1. All individuals reviewing this application are required under 35 USC 181 to sign and date this form regardless of whether they are making a secrecy order recommendation.
2. The attached copy of the application, any copies made therefrom and this form must be returned to the PTO once a recommendation not to impose secrecy has been made or a secrecy order has been rescinded.

Time for Completion of Review:

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 184, the subject matter of this application may be filed in a foreign country for the purpose of filing a patent application without a license any time after the expiration of 6 months from filing date unless the application becomes the subject of a secrecy order.

35 USC 184. (a) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (b) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (c) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (d) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (e) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (f) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (g) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (h) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (i) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (j) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (k) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (l) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (m) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (n) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (o) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (p) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (q) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (r) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (s) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (t) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (u) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (v) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (w) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (x) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (y) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application. (z) If the subject matter of an application for a patent is determined to be a secret or confidential invention within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, the application shall not be published in the Patent Office until the expiration of 6 months from the date of filing of the application.